OLD BUSINESS

Northview signature card that required address changes to make sure Jeff Scholz was not receiving mail from the bank anymore is started. Northview is requesting approved minutes for removing Brittany Barnum and Jeff Scholz. The remaining signatures on the account are Megan Auzenne, Larry Bumgardner, Darlene Funk, and Kristin Hoff.

Megan Auzenne will take a copy of these minutes to Northview and Citizen's Bank.

New Business

Liquor licenses renewed - Clancy's, Eagle View, and Foxy's

Larry looked at the inquiry for 24 office hours to use in October, November, and December for the clerk, treasurer, and deputy treasurer to complete projects and approved the time.

Inland Drive repair has been completed from a sink hole that was called in. Enbridge is going to cover the expenses of the repair that Long Construction invoiced the township in October. Tim Larson reached out via email with estimates and photos. Megan is looking into the usage tax for the invoice to Enbridge via the auditor.

Goldstar Drive and Gazebo - Residents are voicing that there has been speeding on their road. Terry Long spoke about the speed limit signs and how many to order for the road. They discussed specific speeds for the signs - 45mph on the strip of black top and 35mph on the gravel portion. Lance made a motion to place 2 signs on Goldstar and 1 sign on Gazebo, Larry seconded, Kristie third.

- 230th was also brought up for the stop sign at US 71. Larry asked Terry Long about who to reach out to about the lighted stop sign and cat tail cut back.*

Larry made a motion to adjourn at 8:02pm
