OLD BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS

Councilwoman Crawford asked for clarification about the new LGIP savings account that was recently opened. Per Administrator Coggins the account was opened through the SC State Treasurers Office, and we will examine the interest earned when the monthly statements become available.

Administrator Report- Delisa Coggins

- Administration discussed the possibility of allowing employees that have accumulated excessive (maximum) vacation time, requesting a payout up to 40 hours so they will not lose it at the beginning of the year. Administration will recommend this be voted on in October's council meeting.
- Digital sign is set to begin installation this week
- Bay doors will be installed on Tuesday

HOSPITALITY REPORT

- Fall decorations are scheduled to start being put out during the 3rd week of this month.
- National Night Out is scheduled for October 7th

POLICE REPORT

- No major issues were reported during the festival and yard sale
- We now have a fully staffed PD
- We are fully staffed with our new police officer who will be training for a few months before going on the road.

PLANNING/ZONING

Our ordinances are still in the legal department for review through Civic Plus, who is responsible for codification of ordinances. No new updates on the zoning maps we are also waiting on ACOG.

Mayor Mahaffey requested the motion to adjourn, Councilwoman Skipper made a motion, Councilwoman Crawford 2nd, all in favor.
