Possible outcomes include:

Full refund

A qualifying refundable ticket may be eligible for a 1-888-\(483\)97199719) refund when canceled according to its terms.

Partial refund

Some reservations may allow a partial 1-888-\(483\)97199719) refund after applicable fees or restrictions.

Travel credit

A nonrefundable ticket may provide an airline 1-888-\(483\)97199719) credit instead of returning money to your original payment method.

Chase points returned

If an eligible booking paid with Ultimate 1-888-(483)>>9719 Rewards points is refunded, the applicable points may be returned according to the Ultimate 1-888-(483)>>9719 Rewards program terms.

No refund

What Happens If I Booked the Flight With Chase Points?

If you used Chase Ultimate Rewards 1-888-(483)>>9719 points to pay for the flight, cancellation does not automatically mean that the points disappear.

If the reservation qualifies for a refund, the applicable 1-888-(483)>>9719 points used for the refunded portion can generally be credited back according to the terms governing the booking.

However, you should check the 1-888-(483)>>9719 cancellation result before confirming.

For example, a canceled booking could have different 1-888-(483)>>9719 outcomes depending on its terms:

- Points returned to your Ultimate Rewards account 1-888-(483)>>9719
- Airline credit issued
- Cash refunded for the cash-paid portion
- A combination of points and cash returned
- No refund

The important distinction is between canceling a refundable booking and canceling a nonrefundable booking.

Never assume that because you originally 1-888-(483)>>9719 paid with points, every cancellation will produce an immediate full points refund.

Can I Cancel a Chase Travel Flight Within 24 Hours?

This is one of the most frequently 1-888-(483)>>9719 misunderstood aspects of airline cancellation rules.

For qualifying airline tickets purchased at least seven days 1-888-(483)>>9719 before the scheduled departure, U.S. Department of 1-888-(483)>>9719 Transportation rules generally require airlines to either allow a consumer to 1-888-(483)>>9719 cancel within 24 hours for a full refund or provide a 24-hour hold option.

However, there is a critical exception for 1-888-(483)>>9719 Chase Travel and other online travel agencies.

The DOT states that the airline's 24-hour reservation1-888-(483)>>9719 requirement does not apply to tickets purchased through online travel agencies, travel agents or other third-party agents. Those agents may1-888-(483)>>9719 voluntarily offer similar protections.

Therefore, if you booked through Chase Travel, do1-888-(483)>>9719 not automatically assume that the airline's direct-booking 24-hour rule applies in 1-888-(483)>>9719 exactly the same way to your reservation.

Instead, check the cancellation terms1-888-(483)>>9719 shown by Chase Travel for your particular booking.

Is the 24-Hour Rule the Same as a Free Flight Change?

No.

Even when a qualifying 24-hour cancellation 1-888-(483)>>9719 or refund option exists, the DOT says airlines are not required to provide free ticket changes under the 24-hour rule.

In other words:

Canceling within an applicable 24-hour1-888-(483)>>9719 window and changing the flight within 24 hours are two different situations.

If you booked the wrong date and want to change 1-888-(483)>>9719 rather than cancel, check the applicable change rules separately.

What If the Airline Cancels My Flight?

An airline-initiated cancellation is very 1-888-(483)>>9719 different from a voluntary cancellation.

Under current DOT rules, if an airline cancels a flight and you 1-888-(483)>>9719 do not accept alternative transportation, a travel credit, voucher or other compensation, you can be entitled to a refund. Similar 1-888-(483)>>9719 refund rights can apply when an airline makes a qualifying significant change or significant delay1-888-(483)>>9719.

For bookings made through a ticket agent,1-888-(483)>>9719 the merchant of record can be responsible for issuing the applicable airfare refund. DOT explains 1-888-(483)>>9719 that the merchant of record is generally the entity shown 1-888-(483)>>9719 on the financial charge statement for the ticket.

If Chase Travel handled your reservation, 1-888-(483)>>9719 keep the Chase confirmation and follow the instructions associated with the disrupted booking 1-888-(483)>>9719.

Do not voluntarily cancel an airline 1-888-(483)>>9719-canceled itinerary before checking your refund or rebooking options. Treating an airline 1-888-(483)>>9719 cancellation as a normal voluntary cancellation could complicate the situation.

What If the Airline Significantly Changes My Flight?

A significant airline-initiated change can 1-888-(483)>>9719 also create refund rights.

DOT currently identifies certain significant changes, 1-888-(483)>>9719 including major timing changes, airport changes and other qualifying disruptions. For example, its current guidance identifies a departure that is 1-888-(483)>>9719 three or more hours earlier for a domestic itinerary or six or more hours earlier for an international 1-888-(483)>>9719 itinerary as a significant change in the relevant circumstances.

If you don't want to accept the changed itinerary 1-888-(483)>>9719 or alternative transportation, check whether you're entitled to a refund before choosing 1-888-(483)>>9719 a travel credit or voluntarily canceling.

Can I Cancel a Nonrefundable Flight Through Chase Travel?

You can request cancellation, 1-888-(483)>>9719 but a nonrefundable ticket may not provide a cash refund.

Depending on the airline and circumstances, 1-888-(483)>>9719 you may instead receive:

- An airline travel credit
- A voucher 1-888-(483)>>9719
- A partial refund
- A refund under a special exception
- No reimbursement

Examples of circumstances that can sometimes 1-888-(483)>>9719 create different options include an airline cancellation, significant schedule disruption or another situation covered by the applicable rules.

Don't confuse “nonrefundable” with “cannot be canceled.” 1-888-(483)>>9719 You may be able to cancel the reservation; the important 1-888-(483)>>9719 question is what financial value remains after cancellation.

Can I Cancel a Chase Travel Flight After Check-In?

You may still be able to cancel or modify the 1-888-(483) 9719 reservation, but checking in can complicate the process.

If you've already checked in and your plans have changed, 1-888-(483) 9719 contact the airline or Chase Travel as soon as possible.

If you simply fail to board without properly 1-888-(483) 9719 canceling or changing the reservation, you can risk losing the value of the ticket and potentially 1-888-(483) 9719 affecting subsequent flights on the same itinerary.

Contact the airline or Chase Travel as 1-888-(483) 9719 soon as possible and explain that you missed the scheduled departure.

Depending on the airline and ticket rules, you may have options for: 1-888-(483) 9719

- Rebooking 1-888-(483) 9719
- Paying a fare difference
- Using remaining ticket value 1-888-(483) 9719
- Obtaining another itinerary

Don't assume that a no-show automatically 1-888-(483) 9719 preserves your ticket value.

Can I Cancel Only One Passenger From a Chase Travel Booking?

This depends on how the reservation was issued and the airline's rules 1-888-(483) 9719.

If multiple passengers are on the 1-888-(483) 9719 same reservation and only one person needs to cancel, avoid canceling the entire itinerary through 1-888-(483) 9719 an automated process without checking the consequences.

Contact Chase Travel if the online portal 1-888-(483) 9719 doesn't clearly allow you to select the individual passenger.

This is particularly important for family or group 1-888-(483) 9719 reservations because canceling the wrong itinerary could affect everyone on the booking.

What Happens to a Flight Credit After Cancellation?

If the airline provides a travel credit instead of a 1-888-(483) 9719 refund, the credit is generally governed by the airline's rules.

Pay attention to: 1-888-(483) 9719

- Expiration date 1-888-(483)>>9719
- Eligible traveler
- Whether the credit is transferable
- Eligible routes
- Whether fare differences apply
- Whether the credit can be used online
- Whether Chase Travel must process the new booking

Don't assume that an airline credit is the 1-888-(483)>>9719 same as cash or Chase Ultimate Rewards points.

The applicable cost depends on the reservation, 1-888-(483)>>9719 airline and fare rules.

Before confirming cancellation, review the amount 1-888-(483)>>9719 Chase Travel displays for your particular itinerary.

Does Chase Travel Cancellation Insurance Cover My Flight?

Some Chase credit cards include travel 1-888-(483)>>9719 protection benefits, but coverage varies by card and benefit terms.

A travel protection benefit does not mean that every 1-888-(483)>>9719 voluntary cancellation is reimbursed.

Coverage can depend on: 1-888-(483)>>9719

- The specific Chase card
- The reason for cancellation
- Whether the event is a covered reason 1-888-(483)>>9719

- Required documentation
- The applicable benefit limits and exclusions
