§ 116-2 (a). Certificate of Occupancy required - Residential Properties.

In accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:70-2.3 of the State of New Jersey Uniform Fire Code, it shall be unlawful for anyone person, owner, agent/broker firm, partnership, association, corporation or the like shall rent or lease, re-lease, transfer or suffer to allow any person or persons to occupy as a tenant any room dwelling or the like unless the owner shall have first obtained a certificate of occupancy certifying that said structure is fit for human occupancy, and that said dwelling is in compliance with applicable ordinance, codes and laws of Federal, State and Borough Standards. This will include One- and Two-Family dwellings, and attached single-family structures, apartments, rooms, house trailer, mobile homes, except if the same is part of a motel or hotel, unless a certificate of occupancy is obtained from the inspector with consent from the Fire Marshal, Code Enforcement Officer or Housing Official.

§ 116-2 (b)-Commercial and Industrial Properties.

No agent, owner, real estate broker, firm, partnership, association, corporation or person shall rent, re-rent, lease, re-lease, sell, resell or change title or allow any person or persons to occupy as a tenant or otherwise any commercial or Industrial use building where there shall be a change of occupancy, unless a Certificate of Occupancy certifying that said building is fit for human occupation and that said building is in compliance with the Property Maintenance Code, New Jersey State Uniform Fire Code and other Federal, State and ordinances of the Borough, shall first be obtained from the inspector. This will include Assembly, business, educational, factory, industrial, high hazard, institutional, mercantile, storage, and utility - miscellaneous use.

§ 116-3. Application requirements.

Applications for certificates of occupancy shall be made in writing to the inspector and shall state:

A. The name, address and future primary residence or place of business of the future owner/renter.

B. Such description of the structure, dwelling, house trailer, mobile home or the like, by street number or otherwise, as will enable the inspector easily to locate the same.

C. The name and address of the primary residence or principal place of business of the agent, person, association or corporation, if any, appointed by said owner for allowing entry into the structure, dwelling, house trailer or mobile home.

D. For Commercial, prior use group and proposed use group, as per most current use group classification under the Uniform Construction Code.

§ 116-4. Filing required when rental premises vacated.

The owner shall, not more than 30 days prior nor less than 10 days after a tenant removes from and vacates a room, dwelling, apartment or the like, file with the office of the inspector a statement containing the address of the premises and the number or other specific description of the place vacated to the Housing Official and Fire Marshal.

§ 116-5. Inspection procedures.

Eatontown Borough shall perform inspections in accordance with the New Jersey Uniform Fire Code before any One and Two-family or attached single-family structure is sold, leased, or otherwise made subject to a change of occupancy for residential purposes. To protect the health, safety, and wellness of all residents and first responders, the owner shall obtain a combined certificate of smoke alarm, carbon monoxide alarm, and compliance. The Borough finds the issuance of this Certificate of Smoke Alarm, Carbon Monoxide Alarm, and Compliance (CSDCMAC) to be appropriate only after an inspection of the property has been completed and has been determined that the structure and property are found fit for human habitation by satisfying the broader inspection requirement standards set forth in 116-8 for a Certificate of Occupancy (CO). These expansive municipal and state habitability standards mandate that the property pass this aforementioned criteria before final occupancy is granted.

§ 116-6. Required procedures prior to occupancy of properties (Residential).
