

Public Notice

Transient Room Tax

The Francis City Council will hold a public hearing on December 12th, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. at the Francis City Community Center, located at 2319 So. Spring Hollow Rd. The purpose of the public hearing is to receive public comment and possible approval of a proposed Transient Room Tax. The City is authorized by Utah Code 59-12-352 to impose a municipal transient room tax (TRT) of not more than 1% on charges for “Hotels, Motels, Inns, Trailer Courts, Campgrounds, Tourist Homes and Similar accommodations” that are regularly rented for less than 30 consecutive days. The (TRT) will also be applicable to short-term rentals such as VRBO and AirBNB rentals. The City presently has not imposed the (TRT), although the State of Utah and Summit County have imposed it. Certain entities, such as a government entities, are exempt from paying these taxes. The ordinance and code addition will impose a (TRT) of 1% for these services.
