2024 Special POLICE DEPARTMENT REPORT – 17 October 2024

ADMINISTRATIVE

Staffing –

Officer Nickolas Boneck resigned on October 7th, dropping sworn staffing to fifteen of seventeen funded positions.

Recruiting –

The latest recruitment began on September 9th.

The Department has received eight inquiries and six applications; three lateral and three pre-service.

One lateral applicant had been determined ineligible during a previous recruitment process.

The other two applicants for lateral appointment passed the interview process but only one candidate passed the background stage.

In lieu of any additional lateral applications the recruitment will be opened to accept additional pre-service candidates on October 21st.

ACTION ITEMS

Appointment –

Chief Cera advises that Police Officer candidate Zachary Marchewka has successfully completed all phases of the hiring process. He further attests that no member of the Police Department staff is related to, nor has a common business interest with Mr. Marchewka.

Chief Cera respectfully requests the lateral appointment of Zachary Marchewka to the position of Police Officer, effective November 1st, 2024 and subject to a one-year probationary period.
