Building Permits/Variance-Mark Kroontje has set April Publication notice to paper-Hearing set for April 3, 2023 at 7:45PM. Motion by K. Rossow, seconded by B. Rossow. All members present voted aye, motion carried.

Public Comments-Piles behind city hall on the street are getting bigger and more into the street. L. Fuehrer asks how to go about rectifying it-A. Dupper suggests cooperation from sheriffs dept to have it addressed after nothing is done with a friendly conversation. Also noted that it is the residents own responsibility to move snow in front of their mailboxes. Concerned residents wanting snow removal on Saturday's-A. Dupper does not feel it is warranted if it is melting.P. Weisbeck stated if it would have been windrowed, it would have been a bigger mess. L. Fuehrer states we had a list of order of cleanup and where it is at. It starts with Fire Dept, Mail, School, Businesses on Main, fitness center, finance office.

Pool-A. Dupper states states they were going to try to come out and do a walk through with the city council per weather. Dick Werner states there is damage to the ceiling due to roof not being enclosed. Brian is aware of this and is going to fix this. Mechanical room was finished and has great progress. There are lifted seams a little bit but is stated it is not a huge loss. Tile to be getting started in the first part of April weather permitting. A. Dupper moved to approve pay request, seconded by L. Fuehrer. All members present voted aye, motion carried.

*Correction on last months minutes-Anette will not be gone from the library, so no new volunteer will be needed.

District Meeting- Confirmed Adie, Gary, and Kim would attend in Akaska.
