Lake Michigan Lake Levels

Projected September 29th water levels for Lakes Superior, Michigan-Huron, and Erie are 2 to 5 inches below their levels of a month ago. Also, Lakes St. Clair and Ontario are 7 and 9 inches, respectively, below their levels at this time last month. Water levels forecasted for September 29th on Lakes Superior and Michigan-Huron are 2 inches below their levels at this time last year. Meanwhile, Lakes St. Clair, Erie, and Ontario's levels are 1, 3, and 11 inches, respectively, above levels of a year ago. All lakes are still above their long-term September average levels. Over the next 30 days, the forecast shows Lakes Superior and Michigan-Huron declining 2 to 3 inches, while Lakes St. Clair, Erie, and Ontario may drop 6 to 7 inches. See our Daily Levels web page for more water level information.

Join us at the top of the hill for Fall Color Day. We'll set the scene from this iconic vantage point for your fall photo op. Please use parking on site and make the short walk to capture the view. No parking on the highway, please. Be sure to stop by the Log House Museum on your way. This is the final day for the museum to be open. The grounds, with self-guided walking tours, are open year-round from dawn to dusk.

The Fall 50 Scenic Run

Saturday, October 21

Liberty Grove Historical Society hosts the first stop/team relay exchange on this day-long running adventure set against the colorful backdrop of Door County during peak fall colors. Fall 50 and LGHS are looking for volunteers! If you are interested in helping, please click here. If you would like to offer help for LGHS's stop only, please contact Cheryl at cher.culver2@gmail.com. Volunteering is a wonderful way to participate in this unique Door County fall event.

There is still room for solo runners!
