Connect and reflect on THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION with PBS Wisconsin

Beginning this fall, PBS Wisconsin and partners are hosting America@250, a statewide initiative designed to help Wisconsin communities connect and reflect on themes from the American Revolution era – freedom, democracy and service – that still resonate today.

"As we approach our country's 250th anniversary, PBS Wisconsin is bringing Wisconsinites together through the power of storytelling with THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION," said Jon Miskowski, PBS Wisconsin's Director of Television. "Our hope is that this film and the America@250 Initiative spark conversation about not just what happened 250 years ago, but what it means to be American today — and what kind of country we want to build for the next 250 years."

Through the America@250 Initiative, PBS Wisconsin and partners are providing $500 grants, discussion guides with questions and video clips from THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, and other resources for intentionally inclusive Community Conversations. All America@250 resources are free and available to the public.

PBS Wisconsin and partners will also provide facilitation training and other guidance to promote safe, inclusive and fruitful Community Conversations across the state. The $500 Community Conversation grant application window is open Oct. 16 through Dec. 17, 2025. Wisconsin residents age 18 or older can apply. Grant winners will be announced Jan. 19, 2026.

PBS Wisconsin Education is also sharing resources inspired by THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, including two episodes of The Look Back history series for grades 4-9, civics resources for educators and a two-day educator professional learning institute Aug. 5-6, 2026, designed to expand teachers' knowledge of the Revolutionary War era and share strategies for implementing historical thinking and civics skills with learners.

PBS Wisconsin and Wisconsin Public Radio are proud to partner with the Center for Community and Nonprofit Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, the Wisconsin Historical Society and the Wisconsin Veterans Museum on the America@250 Initiative.
