BUSINESS
Interview of Candidates for Board Vacancy
Ben Garbacz
Dan Lametti

The Board of Supervisors had asked both candidates that submitted letters of interest to answer several questions in advance of the meeting. Both candidates were given the opportunity to provide opening statements and answer any additional questions the Supervisors had.

Supervisor Cole commented that he felt that he should abstain from the vote due to the close friendship he had with one of the candidates even though there was a potential to have a split vote. It was decided that he would abstain from the vote and if a second vote was necessary to deal with a split vote, then he would in the second round.

Secret ballots were cast and Clerk, Billi Larson, counted the ballots out loud.

The votes came out in favor of Dan Lametti. (3-1)

Mr. Lametti was sworn in by the Clerk and signed his Oath of Office and Certificate of Appointment.

Adjournment

Motion to adjourn by Supervisor Cole, second by Supervisor Henrickson. Motion carried. (4-0)
