COMMUNITY MESSAGE

As the seasons change and we move into November, it's a great time to reflect on how our community continues to grow and strengthen. Whether it's new faces around town, local projects taking shape, or familiar neighbors lending a helping hand, Minburn thrives because of the connections we share.

Community growth isn't just about numbers—it's about people coming together, supporting one another, and taking pride in the place we call Home. From city events to small daily acts of kindness, every contribution makes a difference.

As our town continues to grow, we have the opportunity to guide and shape that growth together—through shared ideas, thoughtful planning, and active participation. Each voice matters in creating a community that reflects our values and vision for the future.

The Holidays are right around the corner, and let's keep that spirit of connection and collaboration alive. Say hello to someone new, lend a hand when you can, and take a moment to appreciate the wonderful community we've built—and continue to build – in Minburn.

-Your Friends at City Hall

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING

The City of Minburn will hold a special city council meeting to discuss, among other topics, future ownership of residential grinder pump systems.

A meeting for public comment will be held on Tuesday, November 18, 2025, at 7:00PM at the Minburn Public Library.

FUTURE NEWSLETTER DELIVERY

Beginning next month, the City of Minburn newsletter will be moving to an online-only format. This change helps us reduce printing costs, save resources, and share updates with the community more efficiently.

We appreciate your understanding as we make this transition and continue finding ways to keep our community informed in a sustainable and accessible way. To stay up to date, be sure to visit the minburn.org or follow our official social media pages for the latest news and announcements.

For those who prefer a printed version, physical copies will be available at City Hall and the Minburn Public Library.
