

City of Neillsville
Historic Preservation Commission
Regular Meeting Minutes
Wednesday, April 19, 2023 at 6:00 pm.
City Hall – 106 W Division St, Neillsville WI

Meeting Called to Order by Chair Natalie Erpenbach at 6:05 pm.

On Roll Call: Natalie Erpenbach, Jeff Kluckhohn, David Harnisch and Barb Miller present. Nikki Keller, Dan Clough and Julie Simek were absent. A quorum was deemed present.

A motion to approve the agenda was made by Kluckhohn and seconded by Miller. Voice vote, all aye, motion carried.

A motion was made by Harnisch and seconded by Kluckhohn to approve the March 15, 2023 minutes of the prior Historic Preservation Commission (HPC) Meeting. Voice vote, all aye, motion carried.

There were no Citizen appearances.

There were no HPC Applications for Certificate of Appropriateness, Certificate for Demolishing a Historic Structure. Or HPC - Grant Applications to review.

Old Business

Discussed starting the survey of needs in both Downtown Historic Districts in preparation for potential future grant applications when the weather warmed up.

Discussed finalizing the new Self-Guided Cemetery Tour in coordination with the 1897 Clark County Jail Museum . Erpenbach showed example of website link using QRCode for the "Founders Cemetery Tour". Harnisch and Shirley Anderson are helping finalize the material.

Erpenbach shared material / brochures from WI Historic Preservation Commission or Historical Society for use and distribution locally.

Reviewed and updated current list of historic properties in Neillsville.

Provided information to access WI Assoc of Historic Preservation Commissions website to Commission Members.

New Business

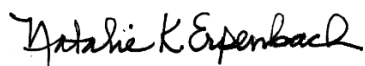

Discussed communication with area real estate agents, bankers and insurance agents in Neillsville area to educate them about options and responsibilities of historic property owners.

Discussed correspondence / comments received since last HPC meeting.

There were no new invoices to be paid from HPC Funds

Motion to adjourn by Miller and seconded by Kluckhohn. Meeting adjourned at 7:15 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Natalie Erpenbach, Recording Secretary.