

Regular Council Meeting March 6, 2023

Mayor Stan Townsend called the meeting to order at 6:30 p.m. In attendance were Kathy Rupp, Darwin Sietsema, Brian Baartman, and Chris McCurdy. Also in attendance were Denny & Jane Fenicle, Jared Dagel, Phil Schelhaas, and Darrin Haroldson.

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited.

Minutes of the February meeting were approved by M/Sietsema 2/McCurdy/cd unanimously.

Resolution 2023-02; A Resolution Approving Grant Applications, Administration, and Implementation for Records Review, Visual Inspections, and Replacement Plans of Lead Water Service Lines within the City of Ruthton was approved by M/Sietsema 2/Baartman/cd unanimously.

Wastewater Supervisor Darrin Haroldson gave the council his report for the month of February and answered the council's questions.

The February bills were presented and approved by M/Rupp 2/Baartman/cd unanimously.

A donation was received and accepted for the Cemetery Fund from Ron & Mavis Shriver.

Jared Dagel along with Phil Schelhaas was here to discuss with the council on improving and moving the Welcome sign located on the Country Church property. The sign was built in 1995 as an Eagle Scout project by Mike Fenicle. The council agrees the sign has been in rough shape since the storm in 2011 and improvements need to be made. The council will look further into this issue and get back to Jared and Phil.

The meeting adjourned at 7:20 p.m. by M/Baartman 2/Sietsema/cd.
