

Town of Starks
Comprehensive Plan Update:
Focusing on the Future

The Starks Select Board will be appointing a Comprehensive Plan Committee to update the Town's 2012 Comprehensive Plan.

The Comprehensive Plan is:

- A plan for the next 10 to 20 years
- A practical guide for managing future growth and change
- A set of recommendations covering all aspects of the town – economy, housing, public facilities and services, transportation systems, cultural and natural resources, land use, and agriculture and forestry
- A way to manage town costs and minimize increases in property taxes
- A way to access outside sources of funding, such as grants
- A legal foundation for local regulations; but is not an ordinance or regulations

If you are interested in being appointed to the Committee, do the following things:

- Review the 2012 Comprehensive Plan on the Town's website: https//www.starksme.com or at the Starks Community Center Library.
- Commit to attending monthly meetings through to the March 2028 Town Meeting.
