Chairperson's Report
Chairperson Abba provided updates on:
- The Town was notified that we received the Wohlt Cheese grant in the amount of $38,250 for landscaping, furnishings/seating for the portico and outdoor area, AV components, standby generator, AED, signage, and other amenities to enhance the park's beauty, safety, usability, and overall visitor experience.
- An assessment of invasive species at Gruetzmacher Park was completed and all invasives are identified and marked for removal.
- A landscaping plan will be created this winter for installation next spring.
- Rentals will begin January 2027.
- Conversations with Brightspeed and the State Broadband Office indicate things are moving forward, but disappointingly slowly.

Clerk/Treasurer Report
Clerk/Treasurer Snyder reported:

- A cash balance of $246,103.50 at the end of September.
- Updates about the November election. Absentee ballots are being mailed daily and in person hours are posted. Additional hours will be added if there's a demand.

Police, Fire, and Rescue Reports: Presented.

Supervisor II Report: Knuth reported on roads, animal control, and fire number replacement.

Supervisor I Report: Bosquez missed the Planning Commission meeting, so there's no update.

County Supervisor Report - Bosquez reported that the remodel project is on schedule.

Meeting adjourned at 7:10 pm.

Respectfully,
Natalie Snyder, Clerk/Treasurer
