DISCUSSION AND ACTION ITEMS

- A. SEVEN-MILE CREEK LANDFILL REQUEST TO PURCHASE COUNTY FOREST LAND – INFORMATIONAL PRESENTATION BY MARK VINALL OF GFL: information presented regarding GFL’s request to purchase land from Eau Claire County that is currently enrolled in the County Forest Program. The presentation was the same presentation previously given to the Eau Claire County Committee on Parks and Forest on August 24. Vinall discussed the reasons for the requested land purchase, the landfill projects requiring additional land, and the process involved in requesting the purchase of County Forest land. Following the presentation, the Board held a 20-minute question-and-answer period. Questions and discussion included the current status of the request and approval process, potential health and environmental concerns, the potential benefits and impacts of expansion, alternative options, and the potential effect on existing trails that are currently part of the County Forest. Due to time limitations, not all questions were able to be presented nor answered. No action was taken.
