Portage County Wellhead Protection Ordinance: Jeanne Dodge, County Board Supervisor, was present to explain the negative impact the proposed changes in this ordinance will have on the Town of Sharon. She explained that the County is over-reaching into taxable improvements. There is a hearing on this Ordinance change on February 24, 2026, and the town has the opportunity to object. In the meantime, a letter will be sent to Planning and Zoning and Jeanne Dodge that the town does not agree and does not want the Ordinance passed in its current form. The town needs more time to decide how it should be written and does not believe it is a benefit for Portage County. The County cannot make this decision without input from the townships.
