A truck fell through the ice on Irogami, but no one was injured. Deputy Spitler cited a two-family residence on Hwy. 73 for junk removal; some items were removed, but some are frozen to the ground. Cleanup has been slow at a residence on Oakhaven, however two vehicles have been sold. A residence on County Rd. NZ is coming up on a deadline for cleanup given by Waushara County. Deputy Spitler stated snow plowing was good, but there were rough spots at intersections and 24th blows over when it's windy.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Adam Kelley asked when the town wants plowing to begin during a snow storm. The board stated they would like to see the plows out during the storm when it's snowing all day. If he has questions, he can call one of them and they can decide on a case-by-case basis. Adam also mentioned they sometimes have hot-mix leftover from a job and they can fill any potholes we have on our town roads; Chicago Pt. Road has potholes to fill.
