Board Reminders/Updates

Election day overview

We had 122 voters that included 9 new registered voters. All absentee voters had returned their ballots and a special Thank you to our Chief Inspectors and Poll Workers who did an excellent job!

Trick or Treat at the Village Hall

It was a well- attended event for the first year with the residents of the Village, Town, Fire Department, Historical Society, and the Princeton Women's Club participating! The Village had coloring tables, Photo Props and we are looking forward to next year!

Pier Update

Both piers have been removed and will need power washing in the Spring. Also looking into new donations containers and signs in kiosks to increase revenue which is on a volunteer basis. A big thank you to Bob Hill and his volunteers for putting out and taking in the piers again this year.

End of Year letter preparation

Some of the topics to be included will be the Lake District, Garbage increase, County Rd H construction, Property Reassessment.

Adjourn

Motion to Adjourn the meeting at 8:01 pm. Michalos/Deiss, Motion passed.
