Citizen Comments – Time Limits and Rules Apply:

Rudy Winther thanked the Village, Princeton Women's Club and all the volunteers who helped make the Duck Hunters Rendezvous a success.

Jason Breaker, Superintendent Markesan School District came to answer any questions or concerns about the upcoming school referendum on November 3, 2026.

A "yes" vote would authorize the Markesan School District to raise $700,000 above the state revenue limit to maintain district programs and operations.

A "no" vote would deny the Markesan School District authority to include $700,000 above the state revenue limit in its annual budget to maintain district programs and operations.

A flyer will be sent out to residents explaining in more detail as to how these funds are needed to maintain the quality of education for the district students.

Jason held an informal question and answer session with the citizens and board members who were present. Jason would be happy to answer any additional questions regarding the referendum from the Village Citizens.

Discuss / ApproveApprove payoff of Loan

A motion was made to pay off the existing loan at National Exchange Bank. Michalos/Deiss. Motion passed. (unanimous)
