Thank you for your time.

- (2) The right to vote is limited to the member of council present at the time the vote is taken. Voting by proxy or by telephone is not permitted.
- (3) All votes must be held and determined in public; no secret ballots are permitted.

(f) Results of voting. In all cases where a vote is taken, the presiding officer shall declare the result. It shall be in order for any councilmember voting in the majority to vote for a reconsideration of the vote on any question at that meeting or at the next succeeding meeting of the council. When a motion to reconsider fails, it cannot be renewed.

(Code 1995, § 2-29; Ord. No. 2004-04, 11-22-2004)

Sec. 2-23. Citizen participation.

(a) General. Each regular council meeting agenda shall provide for reserved time for audience participation. If requested by a member of the council, the presiding officer shall have discretion to allow a member of the audience to speak at times other than the reserved time for audience participation.

(b) Length of presentation. Any person who addresses the council during a council meeting or public hearing shall be limited to five minutes in length per individual presentation. The clerk will maintain the official time and notify the speakers when their time is up.

(c) Addressing the council. When a person addresses the council, he or she shall state his or her name and home address. Remarks should be confined to the question at hand, address their remarks to the presiding officer in a courteous tone, and avoid interjecting a personal note into their remarks. No person shall have the right to speak more than once on any particular subject until all other persons wishing to be heard on that subject have had the opportunity to speak.

(Code 1995, § 2-30; Ord. No. 2004-04, 11-22-2004)

Sec. 2-24. Miscellaneous.

(a) Adoption and amendment of rules of procedure. These rules of procedure of the council will be placed on the agenda of the first meeting of the council following the seating of the newly elected councilmembers for review. A copy of the adopted rules shall be distributed to each councilmember. The council may alter or amend its rules by ordinance at any time by a vote of a majority of its members after notice has been given of the proposed alteration or amendment.

(b) Suspension of rules. The rules of the council may be suspended for a specified portion of a meeting by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present except that council actions shall conform to state statutes and to the state and the United States federal constitutions.

(c) Bid awards. Bids will be awarded by the council during regular or special meetings. A bid award may be made at a special meeting of the council if that action is announced in the notice of the special meeting.

(d) Standing and special committees of council.

(1) The village shall have the following standing committees:

- a. Finance/budget;
- b. Personnel;
- c. Community development.

(2) Committee members will be appointed by the village president at the first regular meeting of the council after January 1 of each year. They shall be members of the council. The village president shall fill any committee vacancies. Committee members shall serve for a term of one year and may be reappointed.

(e) Special committees. Special committees may be established for a specific period of time by the village president or by a resolution of the council which specifies the task of the special committee and the date of its dissolution.

(f) Citizen task forces. Citizen task forces may be established by a resolution of the council which specifies the task to be accomplished and the date of its dissolution. Members of such committees will be appointed by the

ARTICLE IV. BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

DIVISION 1. GENERALLY

Secs. 2-112--2-135. Reserved.

DIVISION 2. PLANNING COMMISSION

Sec. 2-136. Continued.

The village planning commission, as presently constituted, is continued, subject to the provisions of this division.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.01; Code 1995, § 2-101)

Sec. 2-137. Members; appointment; compensation.

The planning commission shall consist of five members who shall represent, so far as possible, different professions and occupations. Members of the planning commission shall be selected as follows:

- (1) Ex officio members. One member of the village board of trustees, who shall be selected by resolution of the village council, shall be an ex officio member of the planning commission, whose term shall correspond to the member's term of office as a member of the village council. Ex officio members shall receive no additional compensation for service on the planning commission. All ex officio members appointed under this subsection shall have full voting rights. The village council may remove the member selected by the village council for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.
- (2) Appointed members. The remaining four members shall be appointed by the village president and shall be subject to approval of the village council by majority vote. The term of each appointed member shall be three years or until his or her successor takes office, except that the terms of two of the members first appointed shall be for one year, and two for two years. An appointed member shall not hold another municipal office, except that one appointed member may be a member of the zoning board of adjustment or appeals. No appointed member shall receive compensation. After a public hearing, a member other than the member selected by the village council may be removed by the village president for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office.
- (3) Vacancy in office. A vacancy on the planning commission occurring otherwise than through the expiration of term shall be filled for the unexpired term by the village president in the case of a member selected or appointed by the village president, or by the village council in the case of the member appointed by the village council.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.02; Code 1995, § 2-102; Ord. No. 2001-01, 7-23-2001)

Sec. 2-138. Oath of office; filing.

Every person appointed to the village planning commission shall, within eight days after receiving notice of such appointment, take and subscribe to the official oath of office and file the same with the village clerk.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.03; Code 1995, § 2-103)

Sec. 2-139. Officers; regulations; records; reports to council.

The village planning commission shall elect its own officers from amongst its members and create and fill such other offices and appoint such employees as it may deem necessary for its work, within the budgetary appropriations made for the planning commission by the village council. The chairman of the planning commission shall hold office for a term of one year and shall be eligible for reelection. The planning commission shall adopt such rules and regulations as necessary for the transaction of its business and shall keep a record of its resolutions, transactions, findings and determinations which record shall be a public record and shall monthly submit to the village council a report of all expenditures made by the planning commission.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.04; Code 1995, § 2-104)

Sec. 2-140. Function; master plan.

It shall be the function and duty of the village planning commission to make and adopt a master plan for the physical development of the village, including any areas outside the boundaries of the village which, in the planning commission's judgment, bear relation to the planning of the village.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.05; Code 1995, § 2-105)

Sec. 2-141. Powers and duties.

All of the powers and duties set forth in the Michigan Planning Enabling Act, MCL 125.3801 et seq. Act No. 285 of the Public Acts of Michigan of 1931 (MCL 125.31 et seq.), as amended, are granted to the village planning commission.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.06; Code 1995, § 2-106)

Sec. 2-142. Submission of budget to village council.

Prior to April 1 of each year, the planning commission shall submit to the village council an estimate of the money deemed necessary for the operation of the planning commission.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 104.07; Code 1995, § 2-107)

Secs. 2-143--2-167. Reserved.

DIVISION 3. MARINA COMMISSION

Sec. 2-121. ~~Penalty for violation.~~

~~Any person who shall violate any provision of this division, or any provision of any rule, regulation or order adopted pursuant to authority granted by this division, shall upon conviction be punished as provided in section 1-10. Each day's failure to comply with any such provision shall constitute a separate violation.~~

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 106.06; Code 1995, § 2-121)

Sec. 2-168. Members; terms; compensation.

(a) The village has created the village marina commission. The marina commission shall consist of seven members, three of whom will serve a three-year term following their appointment by the village president with the approval of the village council at the first regular meeting of the village council in April of the initial even-numbered year, or until their successors are appointed and qualified, and two of whom will serve a three-year term following their appointment by the village president at the first regular meeting of the village council in April of the initial odd-numbered year, or until their successors are appointed and qualified. Four of the seven members shall be chosen from among the electors of the village, the fifth member shall be appointed from among the electors of the county, and the sixth member shall be appointed from among the village trustees. The seventh member of the marina commission shall be the village manager.

(b) All members of the marina commission shall be required to subscribe to the oath of office, as required by law, before entering upon their duties. No member of the marina commission shall receive any salary or other compensation for his services but, upon approval of the village council, may be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in performance of official duties.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 106.01; Code 1995, § 2-122; Ord. No. 2004-02, 5-24-2004)

Sec. 2-169. Officers; meetings.

The village manager shall serve the marina commission as its secretary-controller. The marina commission shall elect from among its members a chairman and such other officers as it deems appropriate, but no person shall hold more than one office. The marina commission shall hold at least two meetings each year, the first of which shall be an organizational meeting on the third Wednesday in April.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 106.02; Code 1995, § 2-123)

Sec. 2-170. Authority and duties.

The marina commission shall make, amend, revise and cause to be enforced written rules and regulations as shall be necessary for proper administration of the marina, and further shall provide and cause to be levied and collected adequate fees and rentals so that the marina is self-supporting. All such regulations shall be submitted to the village council for its approval. Upon such approval, all such regulations may be enforced pursuant to this division. The marina commission shall also provide for and instruct the harbormaster on necessary operation and maintenance of the marina and provide the village council with such plans for expansion or alteration as may be needed to meet the needs of the boating public.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, § 106.03; Code 1995, § 2-124)

Sec. 2-171. Harbormaster appointment; compensation; duties.

(a) The village council shall annually appoint a harbormaster upon recommendation of the marina commission. The harbormaster shall enter upon his duties upon subscribing to the oath of office as required by law. The harbormaster shall receive such compensation as may be established from time to time by the village council.

(b) The harbormaster shall prepare and preserve all data pertaining to use of the marina and the movements of all watercraft moored or docked therein, and shall further maintain a daily transit and seasonal harbor log. The harbormaster shall be responsible for day-to-day operation and maintenance of the marina according to regulations promulgated by the marina commission and shall give such orders and directions relative to the location, berthing, manner of moving or use of watercraft in or about the harbor as may be necessary to promote good order.

(Comp. Ords. 1984, §§ 106.04, 106.05; Code 1995, §§ 2-125, 2-126)

Secs. 2-172--2-195. Reserved.

DIVISION 4. RECREATION COMMISSION

Sec. 2-196. Members; appointment; terms; compensation.

The village has created the village recreation commission. The recreation commission shall consist of seven members. Members of the recreation commission shall be selected as follows:

- (1) Ex officio members. One member of the village board of trustees, who shall be selected by the village council and subject to approval of the village council by majority vote, shall be an ex officio member of the recreation commission whose term shall correspond to the member's term of office as a member of the village council. Ex officio members shall receive no additional compensation for service on the recreation commission. All ex officio members appointed under this subsection shall have full voting rights. The village council may remove the member selected by the village council for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office. ~~One member shall be the village manager.~~
- (2) Appointed members. One member shall be appointed by the village president, and subject to approval of the village council by majority vote, from among the officers of the local hockey association or the local figure skating club as users of the recreation facility with a vested interest in the continuation of the facility. The remaining four members shall be appointed by the village president from among the electors of the village and shall be subject to approval of the village council by majority vote. The term of each appointed member shall be three years following their first appointment at the first regular meeting of the village council in April, or until his or her successor takes office. No appointed member shall receive any salary or other compensation for his services, but, upon approval of the village council, may be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of official duties. Any member selected by the village council may be removed by the village president for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or malfeasance in office. One member shall be the village manager.
- (3) Vacancy in office. A vacancy on the recreation commission occurring other than through the expiration of a term shall be filled for the unexpired term by the village president, and subject to approval of the village council by majority vote.

(Code 1995, § 2-136; Ord. No. 1979-4, § 107.01, 9-10-1979; Ord. No. 2006-01, 2-27-2006; Ord. No. 2010-01, § 2-136, 6-29-2010)

Sec. 2-197. Officers.

The village manager shall serve the recreation commission as its secretary-controller. The recreation

- f. Public hearings;
- g. Approval of council minutes;
- h. Approval of bills;
- i. Reports from council committees;
- j. Reports from village officers)i.e., manager, treasurer, attorney, etc._;
- k. Unfinished business;
- l. New business;
- m. Announcements;
- n. Adjourn.

- (3) Any councilmember or representative of committees, boards or commissions desiring to place a matter on the agenda shall notify the village manager and/or other responsible administrative officer or employee at the village office of such items by 2:00 p.m. on the Thursday preceding the next meeting. Items that are not received by the stated deadline shall not be considered by the council except upon the consent of the majority of the members present.

(b) Consent agenda. A consent agenda may be used to allow the council to act on numerous administrative or noncontroversial items at one time. Included on this agenda can be noncontroversial matters such as approval of minutes, payment of bills, approval of recognition resolutions, etc. Upon request by any member of the council, an item shall be removed from the consent agenda and placed on the regular agenda for discussion.

(c) Agenda distribution. Upon completion of the agenda and the compilation of any accompanying material related to items on the agenda, the village manager and/or other responsible administrative officer or employee at the village office shall immediately distribute the agenda packets. The packets may be distributed either by mail or by personal delivery.

(d) Quorum. A majority of the entire elected or appointed and sworn members of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all council meetings. In the absence of a quorum, a lesser number may adjourn any meeting to a later time or date with appropriate public notice. No member of the council may absent himself or herself without first having informed the village clerk of the impending absence and the reason for the absence.

(e) Attendance at council meetings. Election to the village council is a privilege freely sought by the nominee. It carries with it the responsibility to participate in council activities and represent the residents of the village. Attendance at council meetings is critical to fulfilling this responsibility. A general law village council is empowered by section 65.5 of the General Law Village Act as amended to adjourn a meeting if a quorum is not present and compel attendance in a manner prescribed by its ordinance.

(f) Excusing absences for cause. The council may excuse absences for cause. If a councilmember has more than three unexcused successive absences for regular or special council meetings, the council may enact a resolution of reprimand. In the event that the member's absences continue for more than three additional successive regular or special meetings of the council, the council may enact a resolution of censure or request the councilmember's resignation or both.

(g) Duties of the council. The council shall prescribe the rules of its own proceedings and shall keep a record of those proceedings. An office shall not be created or abolished; a tax or assessment imposed; a street, alley or public ground vacated; real estate or an interest in real estate purchased, leased, sold or disposed of; for the public improvement ordered, except by a concurring vote of two-thirds of the members. Money shall not be appropriated except by ordinance or resolution of the council. An ordinance appropriating money shall not be passed or a resolution appropriating money shall not be adopted, except by a concurring two-thirds vote of the members.

(h) Presiding officer. The presiding officer shall be responsible for enforcing these rules of procedure and for enforcing orderly conduct at meetings. The village president shall be the presiding officer. At the first meeting of the council following the seating of the newly elected councilmembers, the council shall appoint one of its members as president pro tempore, who shall preside in the absence of the president. In the absence of both the president and the president pro tempore, the council shall select a presiding officer by a majority vote of the members present.

(i) Disorderly conduct. The presiding officer may call to order any person who is being disorderly by speaking out of order or otherwise disrupting the proceedings, failing to be germane, speaking longer than the allotted time or speaking vulgarities. Such person shall be seated until the presiding officer determines whether the person is in order. If the person so engaged in presentation is called out of order, he or she shall not be permitted to continue to speak at the same meeting except by special leave of the council. If the person shall continue to be disorderly and disrupt the meeting, the presiding officer may order the sergeant at arms to remove the person from the meeting. No person shall be removed from a public meeting except for an actual breach of the peace committed at the meeting.

(j) Sergeant at arms. The sergeant at arms shall be either the county sheriff or his or her designee, or a trooper from the state police.

(Code 1995, § 2-27; Ord. No. 2004-04, 11-22-2004)

Sec. 2-21. Closed meetings.

(a) Purpose. Closed meetings may be held only for the reasons authorized in the Open Meetings Act, which are the following:

- (1) To consider the dismissal, suspension, or disciplining of, or to hear complaints or charges brought against, a public officer, employee, staff member or individual agent when the named person requests a closed meeting.
- (2) For strategy and negotiation sessions connected with the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement when either negotiating party requests a closed hearing.
- (3) To consider the purchase or lease of real property up to the time an option to purchase or lease that real property is obtained.
- (4) To consult with the municipal attorney or another attorney regarding trial or settlement strategy in connection with specific pending litigation, but only when an open meeting would have a detrimental financial effect on the litigating or settlement position of the council.
- (5) To review the specific contents of an application for employment or appointment to a public office when a candidate requests that the application remain confidential. However, all interviews by a public body for employment or appointment to a public office shall be held in an open meeting.
- (6) To consider material exempt from discussion or disclosure by state or federal statute.

(b) Calling closed meetings. At a regular or special meeting, the councilmembers, elected or appointed and serving, by a two-thirds roll call vote may call a closed session under the conditions outlined in section C.1 of the Open Meetings Act, MCL 15.261 et seq. The roll call vote and purpose for calling the closed meeting shall be entered into the minutes of the public part of the meeting at which the vote is taken.

(c) Minutes of closed meetings. A separate set of minutes shall be taken by the clerk or the designated secretary of the council at the closed session. These minutes will be retained by the clerk, shall not be available to the public, and shall only be disclosed if required by a civil action, as authorized by the Open Meetings Act, MCL 15.261 et seq. These minutes may be destroyed one year and one day after approval of the minutes of the regular meeting at which the closed session was approved.

(Code 1995, § 2-28; Ord. No. 2004-04, 11-22-2004)

Sec. 2-22. Discussion and voting.

(a) Rules of parliamentary procedure. The rules of parliamentary practice as contained in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the council in all cases to which they are applicable, provided that they are not in conflict with these rules, village ordinances or applicable state statutes. The village president may appoint a parliamentarian.

- (1) The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum and may speak to points of order in preference
