For the 1st six months of this year, we have run 37 calls in the Village of Theresa, 29 calls in the Town of Theresa, 108 calls for the Village of Lomira, 13 calls for the Town of Lomira, 2 for Kekoskee and 1 for Mayville.

Of the 20 calls, 4 were no transports and 0 lift assist. 3 calls to the nursing home in Lomira and 3 for the assisted living side of the nursing home. For the year from January-June, the service has run 190 calls.

Transported 16 patients to various local hospitals. In total we have transported 150 patients the first six months of this year so far.

The new ambulance on order is still scheduled for a late August 2025 delivery.

For June we had Dr. CJ our Medical Director come out on June 22 for training. On June 21 assisted the Theresa Police Department with a bike rodeo from 0900-1130. We gave out free bike helmets that we received from a grant from the Wisconsin South Eastern Regional Trauma Advisory Committee (SERTAC) that we received last year in 2024. June 28 will be in Lomira at St. Johns School for their annual Touch a Truck program.
